

WHAT TO DO IN VEGAS DURING THE MONTH OF MARCH

Las Vegas is known as the Entertainment Capital of the World. There is always an abundance of festivities to please. Here are some spring events worth checking out this month.

Downtown Summerlin® is hosting a four-week Spring Concert Series. Festivities take place Wednesday evenings starting March 7 through March 28 on The Lawn. The events are free, family-friendly and open to the general public.

VIP seating will be available for premier viewing. Patrons interested in VIP seating must spend a minimum of $50 the day of the concert at Downtown Summerlin retail and restaurant partners to receive two VIP seats. Guests will be required to show their receipts to Concierge upon arrival to the VIP section. VIP seats are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Each concert will start with music at 5 p.m. along with a variety of kid friendly activities. The first performance starts at 5:30 p.m. with an acoustic act, followed by the first band set at 7 p.m. and a second band set at 8:30 p.m. Families are encouraged to bring blankets and enjoy the evening outside listening to a strong line-up of local performers.

The line-up includes: Jeremy Cornwell and Shawn Eiferman on March 7; Empire Records and Camden West on March 14; The Union Drifters and Matt Morgan on March 21; and The Moonshiners and Justin Carder on March 28.

“Music is universal. It’s a terrific way to entertain a crowd and connect on a greater level,” stated Jeremy Cornwell, musician. “The Concert Series at Downtown Summerlin offers an ideal location to get together with family and friends and enjoy a diverse assortment of artists outdoors. It doesn’t get much better than that.”

Visit www.summerlin.com for more details.

Rev up your engines. NASCAR returns to Las Vegas for the first of two races at the Las Vegas Motor Speedway March 2 -4. From the big race at the Speedway, to the Hauler Parade down the Strip and driver meet and greets all over town, there will be plenty of things to do and places to go to support this three-day event.

March Madness will roll into Las Vegas in its usual bullish way March 13 – April 2. Find your favorite sports book or lounge, place your bets and settle in for a great playoff series. Dave & Buster’s at Downtown Summerlin is the ultimate sports viewing destination with more than 30 HD, big-screen TVs and a 360-degree sports bar to catch every game – perfect for March Madness.

March is also the heart of hockey season. Be a part of the Vegas Golden Knights inaugural season and check out a game at T-Mobile Arena or stop by to view them practicing at City National Arena in Summerlin®. You won’t be disappointed.