

SUMMERLIN® AWARDS COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS TO OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

The Summerlin Children's Forum (SCF), a nonprofit organization established in 1997 by leaders of the Summerlin® master-planned community and its developer, The Howard Hughes Corporation®, recently awarded three college scholarships to outstanding recent high school graduates who are residents of the community.

The 2018 SCF scholarship recipients include Caitlyn Somers, a graduate of Faith Lutheran High School, who is headed for UCLA to study English; Lauren Epstein, a graduate of Palo Verde High School, who will attend Arizona State University to study biomedical engineering; and Zachary Marks, a graduate of West Career and Technical Academy who plans to attend the University of Utah to study political science and international studies;

Since 1997, the Summerlin Children's Forum has funded scholarships, enrichment grants and special educational programs totaling nearly $640,000. The annual scholarship program is open to all graduating high school seniors who reside in Summerlin.

"These students are representative of the very best in their respective schools and in their community," said Warden. "The Summerlin Children's Forum scholarship is awarded to those who have achieved academically while giving back to the community and their school through a commitment to service and extracurricular activities. We are always pleased to award these annual scholarships and look forward to the next exciting chapter for these accomplished young people."

Summerlin currently offers new homes in nearly 35 neighborhoods in seven villages: The Paseos, The Cliffs, Stonebridge, The Ridges, Summerlin Centre, South Square and Reverence. In total, there are more than 150 distinctive floorplans showcased in nearly 100 models with designs to meet the varied lifestyle needs of today's modern families – from young professionals and singles to couples just starting their families or empty-nesters looking to right-size their home. Homes in Summerlin range from 874 to more than 5,000 square feet and are offered in a variety of elevations - from single-family homes to townhomes and condominiums – priced from the $200,000s to more than $1 million. Custom homesites are offered in The Ridges®, an exclusive enclave of custom homes neighborhoods that overlook the Las Vegas valley. Visit www.summerlin.com for more information.
