BE PART OF SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL

Howard Hughes  SUMMERLIN.COM

7.2020

A woman with dark hair tied back is jogging on a paved path. She is wearing a light-colored, sleeveless crop top and colorful, patterned leggings. The path is bordered by a wooden fence. In the background, a city is illuminated at night, with lights appearing as a bokeh effect. The sky is a deep blue, suggesting dusk or dawn. The overall mood is serene and active.

A couple is silhouetted against a bright, golden sunset sky. They are standing on the peak of a dark, rocky mountain. In the background, a range of mountains stretches across the horizon, also silhouetted against the light. The overall mood is peaceful and romantic.

SOME THINGS ARE Sacred.

In 1988, the Summa Corporation (now The Howard Hughes Corporation) traded 5,000 acres of undeveloped land to create what is now Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area, preserving and protecting it forever. And Summerlin has been thriving in the peaceful shadows of these crimson rocks ever since.

Red Rock's 200,000-acre, federally protected playground is known internationally for its striking desert and mountain landscapes and more than 2,000 climbing routes that have earned it the distinction as one of the top five climbing destinations in the U.S. More than a dozen trails offer everything from easy family hikes to more adventurous outings with double-digit mileage and 1,000 feet of elevation gain. The area's 13-mile, paved scenic loop is also a hot spot for cyclists and runners.

Adventure enthusiasts travel across the globe to make memories here, and when you live in Summerlin, it's quite literally an extension of your own backyard.

In Summerlin, academic accomplishments, athletic victories and cultural accolades abound.

Villages

Since inception, Summerlin has developed neighborhoods within villages to create a stronger sense of intimacy through the 35 square miles of the community. Each village highlights a signature architectural style, design features and standards that distinctly benchmark Summerlin's lifestyle. Over time, the villages have taken on a more authentic blend of design criteria and sense of place that compliments the surrounding natural environment unique to the land.

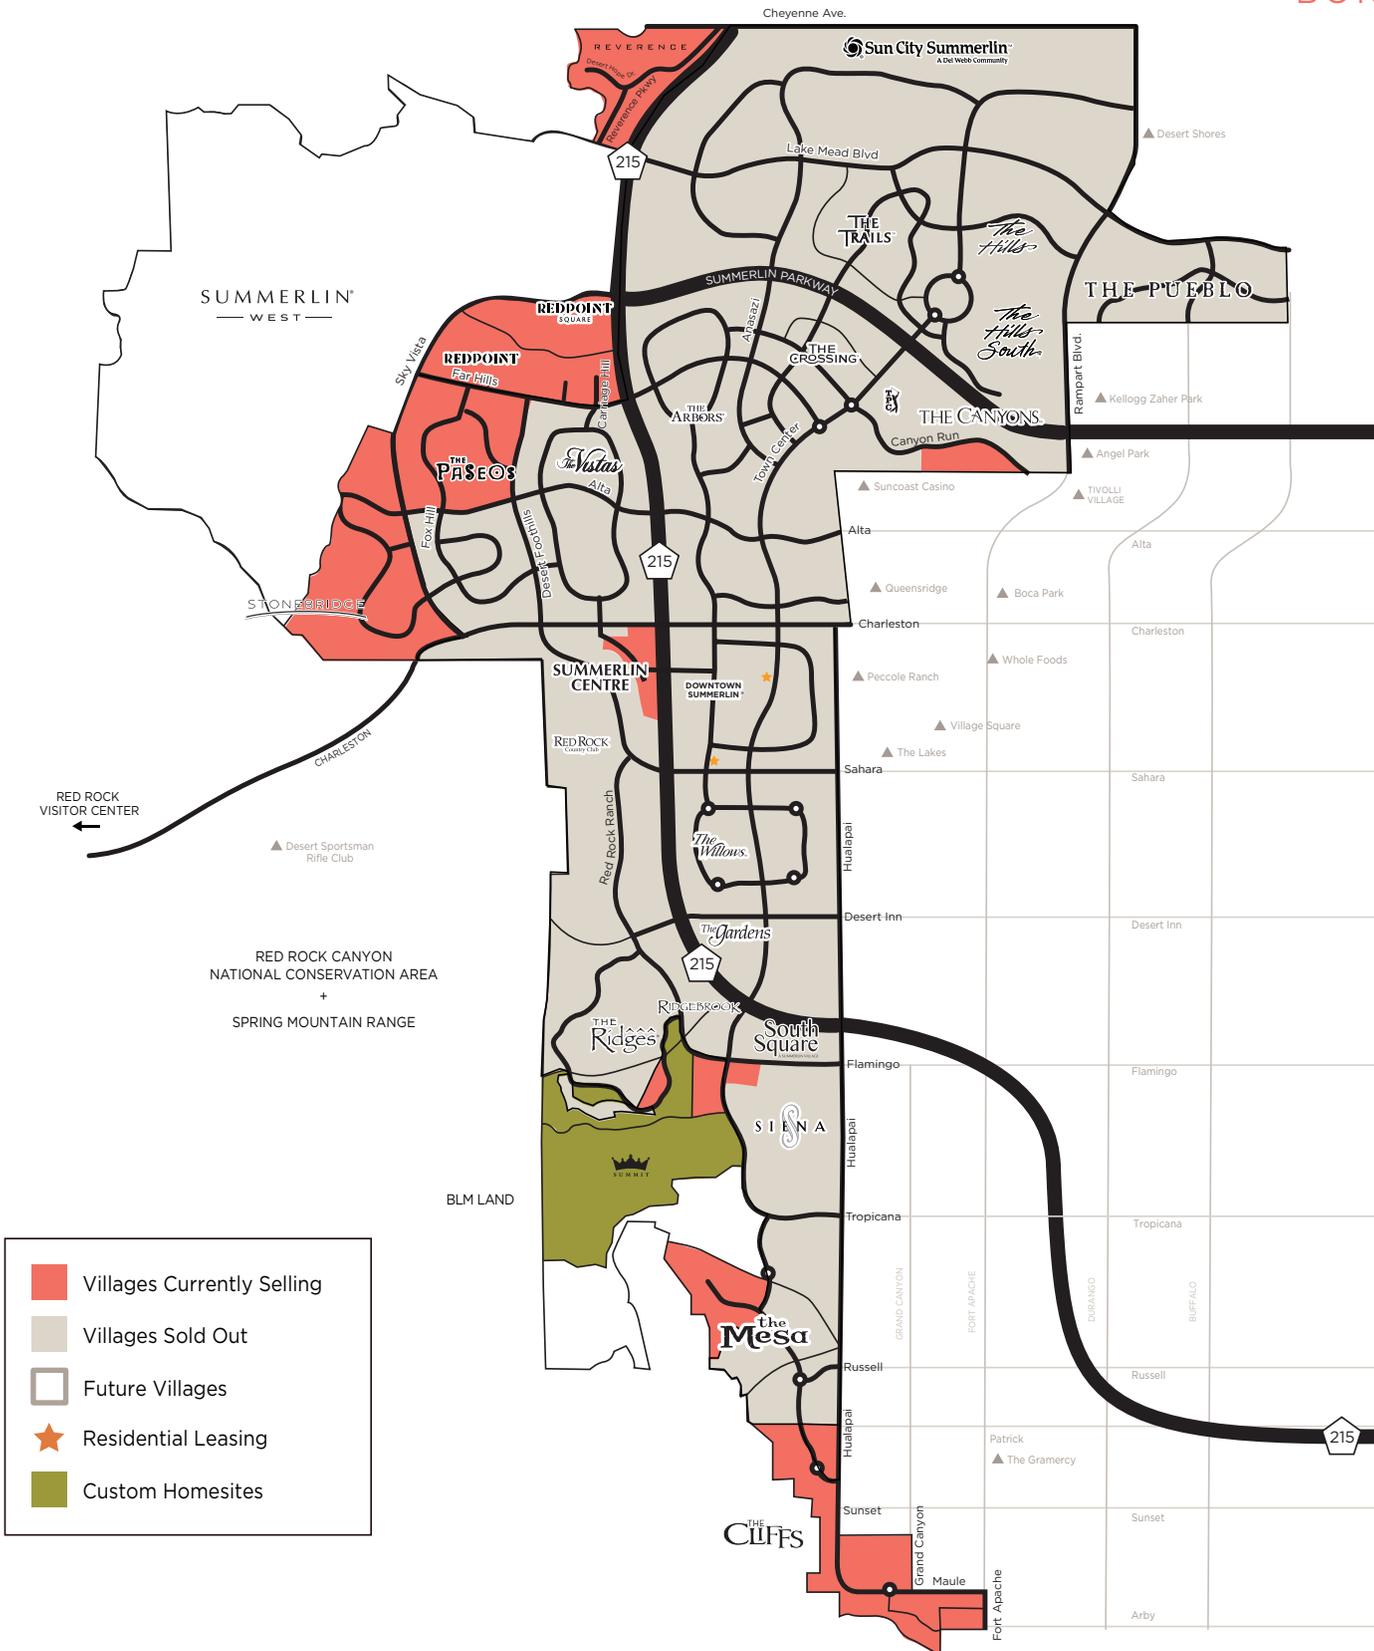

Your most memorable moments just might happen here:

The Canyons	The Mesa	Redpoint Square	South Square
The Cliffs	The Paseos	Reverence	Stonebridge
Downtown Summerlin	Redpoint	The Ridges	Summerlin Center

Summerlin West

With the development of Summerlin West, this is even more true today. The majority of Summerlin's developable land is in Summerlin West bordered by Charleston Blvd., the 215 beltway, Lake Mead Blvd. to the natural borders to the west.

Within the future villages and districts of Summerlin West, we're moving, literally and figuratively, into new territory. Over 5,000 acres of high desert framed by the Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area and La Madre Mountain Wilderness Area. Spanning the spectrum from vibrant urban living to big nature, traditional homes to spectacular estates at the edge of protected open space.

SOMEPLACE TO Age Beautifully.

Summerlin's 100,000 residents span all generations. We're both refining and redefining active adult living with neighborhoods like Regency, Trilogy and Heritage plus more age-defined home choices still to come.
