FESTIVAL OF ARTS

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT

Holly Kaufmann-Martinez
Castaic, CA
Discipline: Jewelry

Holly Kaufmann, new to the festival, is known for her Junk Yard Jewelry that creatively transforms vintage and industrial components into contemporary necklaces, cuffs, bracelets, and earrings. Unexpected materials such as vintage light bulbs, springs and washers are all integrated into her one-of-a-kind designs.

Harut Hakobyan
Granada Hills, CA
Discipline: Mixed-Media

Harut Hakobyan is a master of mixed-media. He uses acrylic paints and molding paste to create each unique work of art. New to the festival, Hakobyan paints with pallet knives and brushes for enhanced textures and applies a water-based varnish as a finishing touch.

Charles Siefert
Las Vegas, NV
Discipline: Photography

Charles Siefert is an accomplished landscape and nature photographer. Most of Siefert's photographs are landscapes from western states and include the stark beauty of the desert, rocky shores of the Pacific Ocean, and the majestic peaks of the Rocky Mountains and Sierras. By using natural light to enhance colors throughout the seasons, Siefert offers a beautiful assortment in his photographic collection.

Michael George
Fountain Hills, AZ
Discipline: Sculpture

Hailing from Arizona, Michael George's vivid works are casted acrylic, bronze, stainless steel sculptures poured in multiple layers of flawless transparent colors. His sculptures are hand shaped to form an abstract structure then polished to a high finish.

25TH ANNUAL SUMMERLIN FESTIVAL OF ARTS

Experience the valley's premier open-air art festival: the Summerlin Festival of Arts — a free festival featuring approximately 100 celebrated artists, displaying a variety of fine art for purchase, live entertainment and children's activities. Don't miss a cherished Summerlin fall tradition.
